3rd Sunday of Advent

Advent is a season of expectation and preparation, as the Church prepares to celebrate the coming (adventus) of Christ in his incarnation, and also looks ahead to his final advent as judge at the end of time.

The Advent wreath is a centuries-old Christian tradition that holds four candles representing the four Sundays of Advent. Each Sunday symbolises one of the four Advent themes: Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love. The wreath's circular shape and evergreen colour represent God's infinite and everlasting love for us.

First Reading – Isaiah 35.1-10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the Lord, the majesty of our God.

Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart, 'Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you.'

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveller, not even fools, shall go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Second Reading – James 5.7-10

Gospel Reading – Matthew 11.2-11

When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?' Jesus answered them, 'Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offence at me.'

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written, "See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you."

Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

The Strollers – Next Walk on Saturday 17th December; meet @ 9:45am at Whitton Station

Although there will be Train and Bus strikes this Saturday, the final walk of 2022 is still planned to take place with hopes of also including a sit-down lunch together. Please come to Whitton station for 9:45am where a plan for the walk will be devised based on the buses in operation, and don't bring a picnic lunch.

St Augustine Church Strollers Group welcomes anyone who may enjoy walking and meeting new people. We walk between 4 and 6 miles, aiming to include stops for coffee and lunch. We have members of differing ages and abilities, all of whom are welcome. Please contact pdewinton@aol.com for further information.

Churches Together in Whitton

The preparations for the Christmas Day lunch are underway and, once again, we need to ask for your help. Volunteers are needed on Christmas Eve at Ss Philip & James to prepare the hall. We will meet at 11.30am for about 1 hour (the more people that help the shorter the time required). On Christmas Day, we require people to help greet our guests and serve lunch. We also require drivers to transport the guests to and from the hall.

If you think you can help, please sign up on the lists at the back of the church or contact Roubina de Winton (roubinadewinton@gmail.com).

December Retiring Collection

Next month's retiring collection is for Crisis. Crisis is the nation's largest homeless charity dedicated to helping people experiencing homelessness. They work directly with thousands of homeless people every year and provide vital help so that people can rebuild their lives and are supported out of homelessness for good.

Every year Crisis at Christmas opens its doors to people who are homeless. Right now, thousands of people at the sharp end of poverty are at risk of being pushed into homelessness. As a national charity, Crisis offer much-needed warmth, healthcare, food and company to people experiencing homelessness across the UK.

Schools visit St Augustine's Church

Heathfield Junior School:

In the last two weeks St Augustine Church hosted the following events:

- Health School 30th November - 112 Year 4 pupils and 16 teachers visited to learn about how Christians worship and the different parts of the church and their use.
- Health School 8th December - 90 Year 3 pupils with 20 teachers and helpers visited to learn about Advent and the Christmas story.

The pupils displayed deep knowledge of the various aspects of the Church and how they are used as well as their understanding of the key features of Christmas and Advent and showed an inquisitive and critical thinking mind by the questions they asked. It was a privilege to have them.

Waldegrave Secondary School:

Waldegrave School had their first Christmas Carol service at St Augustine on 2nd December. 138 students performed in the three choirs and about 180 teachers and parents were in the congregation. The School's Head of Performing Arts and Music wrote afterwards, "Thank you so much for welcoming us into your church. It was such a lovely setting for our first carol service at Waldegrave."

We are expecting more Christmas Carol services from our local schools in the coming week.
