Baptism of Christ

Matthew 3.13-end

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptised by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?'

But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented.

And when Jesus had been baptised, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Thought for the Week

“And a voice from heaven said: This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased”. This last sentence from the Gospel is incredibly powerful and I think we can all picture the scene.

And here's the thing, the same voice of God is calling each and every one of us, already before we make the decision to get baptised if we are adults, and having our children or young ones baptised. God has already called us by name, as God's beloved with whom God is well pleased. If I could, I would change these last words, because I believe God's love for us is far deeper and stronger than for God to be well pleased with us, God's beloved children. I believe that we are perfect in God's eyes and when we embrace this love and come forward to be baptised, God is absolutely overjoyed. We don't need the baptism per se, to deserve God's love. God loved us before we even knew of God. But it is a beautiful declaration to say yes to God's love and longing for us to be in relationship with God, when we are baptised. To say yes to explore a life together, and in relationship with God.

In the liturgy we are being anointed with the words: Receive the sign of the cross. Christ claims you for his own. It is incredibly intimate and powerful to be claimed by our Saviour, Godself. When you walk through this week, cross yourself on the forehead every now and then and remember that Christ claims you as God's very own beloved child.

And if you not yet are baptised, it is never too late!

Prayer tree until Candlemas 1st February

This tree is dedicated to our prayers, dreams and hopes for this season and beyond. Next to the tree there is a basket with cards and pens. Take time to sit down, write your prayer and hang it in the tree. Let this season be a season of prayer and reflection. Let God hold all your thoughts, dreams and worries in love and give you God's peace.

January's Retiring Collection is for the Motor Neurone Disease Association sponsored by Graham Dale

There shouldn't really be any need for anything to be said about this devastating disease which has received much recent publicity due to the bravery of now departed sufferers, Doddie Weir and Rob Burrows and the fund raising efforts of such as Kevin Sinfield.

Motor Neurone Disease (MND) is when messages from the nerves known as motor neurones gradually stop reaching the muscles and it leads the muscles to weaken, stiffen and waste affecting how the patient walks, talks, eats, drinks and breathes. Some people also suffer cognitive and behavioural changes. The disease affects everyone differently and not all symptoms affect everyone in the same way or the same speed. MND is life shortening and there is no cure, but the symptoms can be managed to help achieve the best quality of life.

The Motor Neurone Disease Association is the only national charity in England, Wales and Northern Ireland focussed on MND care, research and campaigning. The MND Association with nearly 8000 members provides powerful national and local network that provides information and support alongside fighting for improved services. I'm not expecting you to run seven ultra marathons in a week, as Kevin Sinfield, Rob Burrows great friend, has done; but please give generously. More information about the charity you can Click this link or go to <https://www.mndassociation.org/>
Thank you.
