

ST AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY, WHITTON
SUNDAY 23rd July 2023

CHURCH NEWS

St. Augustine Church, Whitton, Hospital Bridge Road, Twickenham, TW2 6DE

7th Sunday after Trinity

The Parable of Weeds among the Wheat

“ ‘The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.’ ” – (Mathew 13:37 - 40)

The Season of Trinity celebrates the Christian doctrine of the Holy Trinity; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We give thanks for what the Father, Son and Holy Spirit have done in creating and accomplishing salvation for humanity and the whole creation.

The trinity expresses the way we relate to, experience and worship God; we remember the Father as our Creator, the Son as our Saviour, and the Holy Spirit as our Comforter and strength. Celebrating Trinity Sunday after Pentecost also allows the Church to further reflect on the mystery of God after receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit.

First Reading – Genesis 28.10-19a

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went towards Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, 'I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.' Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, 'Surely the Lord is in this place—and I did not know it!' And he was afraid, and said, 'How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.'

So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called that place Bethel; but the name of the city was Luz at the first.

Second Reading – Romans 8.12-25

Gospel Reading – Matthew 13.24-30, 36-43

He put before them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?" He answered, "An enemy has done this." The slaves said to him, "Then do you want us to go and gather them?" But he replied, "No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, 'Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.' He answered, 'The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

A Word from the Vicar

We give thanks to God for the gift of diversity which enriches our humanity and our faith in God, “who is a diversity of persons” and yet exists “in ineffable unity.”

I trust that several of us will attend the ALMA service on Sunday 23rd July @5.30pm at St Paul’s Cathedral.

My prayers for you all.

Pilgrimage to The Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham (14th – 17th July)

Five members of the St Augustine's congregation joined a group from St Mary's Sunbury with three other churches on the annual weekend pilgrimage to Walsingham in Norfolk led by Fr Simon Lane.

The trip to Walsingham began with a short service of Blessing at St Augustine's. Each morning began with Mass at 8am. On Saturday morning St Augustine's group opted to go to Wells-next-the-Sea for lunch and in the evening attended the pilgrims mass followed by the candle lit procession of Our Lady in the grounds. Benediction followed, and a service of laying on of hands and healing for those who wish it.

On Sunday morning the pilgrims attended mass at the beautiful Parish Church of St Mary's, and in the afternoon were all sprinkled with holy water from the well and joined the procession of the Blessed Sacrament in the grounds. This was later followed by Benediction and the Stations of the Cross in the evening in the peaceful grounds. After a final prayer of farewell on Monday, we set off for home around 10am

Besides all the shrine services and processions there is plenty of time to sit or wander and admire the beautiful gardens or join fellow pilgrims in the well-stocked bar. Everyone was well fed (almost too well fed) in the refectory.

If you think you might be interested in finding out more or joining next year pilgrimage please do speak to Fiona, Jane or Roubina.
